

CARROLL COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Celebrating Carrollton's 175 years of History

Curtis-Marlow-Perry House
Carroll County Historical Society
Headquarters and Museum

CCHS has its headquarters in the old Curtis-Marlow-Perry house of West Avenue. The house was originally located on Stewart Street and is one of the oldest homes in Carrollton. It is a 16 X42 dogtrot with a central hall that was built in the early 1830's by Henry and Nancy Curtis. His son Col. William Curtis grew up in this house and became Captain of the Carroll Guards, 19th Georgia Regiment and the Colonel of the 41st Georgia during the War Between the States. Mr. Curtis is best remembered for selling the land lot, which became the county seat and the public square for the city of Carrollton.

Meetings of the Society:

- General Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of the month with board meetings held on the first Tuesday of each month. Members will be notified of meetings by newsletters and emails.
- Annual Membership Dinner is held in the spring with program on the historical subject of interest.
- Some meetings are planned at various locations in the county to visit local sites of historical interest.
