Spirits of Depot Street– Historic Bradley Street

The October 25th historic walking tour of people and places of Bradley Street (originally known as Depot Street) was jointly presented by the Carroll County Historical Society, the City of Carrollton Historic Preservation Commission, and the City of Carrollton. Thanks especially to all the people involved, the 120 + guests who took the tour were introduced to the many buildings and early leaders who made the area so vital to the early development of West Georgia.

Special thanks are due to Gwyn Chesnut who directed the event and John Carter Clay who wrote the scripts for the 18 historic characters re-creating the look and feel of the period.
